And when the Lord has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant.' 32 David said to Abigail, 'Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today! 33 Blessed be your good sense, and blessed be you, who have kept me today from blood-guilt and from avenging myself by my own hand!	She recognized the need to humble herself and intercede for her people before King David and was willing to do so. Faith and Courage	The story of Queen Esther (Esther 2:17). When her nation Israel was in jeopardy of being wiped out (Esther 3:13), Mordecai told Esther “Do not think to yourself that in the king’s palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews. For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this” (Esther 4:13-14)? After the entire nation fasted, Esther said that “I will go to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish”	without action is dead, hence we should have faith and courage to put it into action just like Esther.	the Bible Kenya’s First Lady: Her Excellency, Margaret Kenyatta(Beyond zero campaign) The president of Kenya-Uhuru Kenyatta-‘I believe’ campaign slogan.
Inclusiveness	Ephesians 4:30-5:1 ‘And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children.	God is in the business of healing our relationships. When we do things His way, we are well on the way of reconciling with our alienated friends and building a solid foundation for further spiritual growth. Teamwork	The story of Friends. Proverbs 27:17 Iron sharpens iron and one man sharpens another.	There is mutual benefit in working together as opposed to self-gratification. The more we seek God to fulfill our need the more we will truly be satisfied.	President Barrack Obama ‘ Yes we can’
Mediator	The Law of the King: Mathew 5:25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. 26 Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.	There is no conflict that God cannot solve. Hard feelings have destroyed many friendships. However, it goes against human nature to humble ourselves and seek reconciliation. But the Lord gives us two important reasons to do so: (1) Hatred in the heart (either theirs or ours) is just like the act of murder and puts a person in danger of hell fire (Mt 5:22). (2) If we don't choose the way of peace, even if that means personal loss, as in turning the other cheek (Mt 5:39) or going	Tegla Loroupe (Kenya’s long distance track and road runner and also a global spokeswoman for peace, womens rights and education). the extra mile (Mt 5:41), then we run the danger of having the judge decide against us and having to suffer the consequences.
